Dear Parents and Carers,

As you may be aware, as of September 2020, the Government mandated all schools to provide a Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) that covers both health and relationships education. The new government documentation (please see link below,) sets out the first changes to the national curriculum since the Equality Act 2010, and aims to ensure that strong equalities focus underpins the curriculum:

Statutory guidance: Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education \(RSE\) and Health Education

In response to the published guidance, our school has come together and developed both a policy and curriculum that covers all the areas set out in the government documentation. Our Relationships and Health (RHE) curriculum encompasses six key areas that are explored each year:

- Living in the wider world;
- Positive relationships at school;
- Safety, health and wellbeing;
- Equality;
- Relationships;
- Sex and relationship education.

We aim for the draft RHE policy to provide further clarity about the importance of the subject and how we teach it. The draft policy can be found by following this link: Relationships and Health Education policy.

We are keen to gather your feedback on the RHE policy. In particular we would like to know;

- Are there any aspects of the policy that you would like further clarity on? If so, what are they?
- How can we best support you and your child/children to get the best out of the RHE curriculum?
- Would you be interested in accessing an information event regarding the RHE curriculum?

Please send any thoughts or feedback to wfcontact@wingfield.compassps.uk by Friday 4th December.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Ross Silcock
Head Teacher
